Judging Criteria

The panel of judges will use the following criteria when selecting the winning artworks;

- Originality of subject matter
- Colour & Tone - how effectively you use these to communicate a mood or message
- Composition - how you use the elements in your artwork to create harmony or drama
- Technique - the level of skill used to create the work
- Emotion - does the work “speak” to the viewer?

Timescale

DEADLINE -The deadline for submitting the Young Artist Awards entry form is 31st July 2019. Late entries will not be accepted under any circumstances.

JUDGING - The final judging will take place on 31st August 2019. Please make sure that you or someone you trust will be available on 31st August to submit and collect your artwork. Judging will take place at Market Hill Rooms, Fish Hill, Royston SG8 9LB. Further details will be given closer to the date.

SHOULD YOU WIN - The winning work will be displayed at the Royston Arts Society’s Autumn exhibition. This will be held in Royston Town Hall over the weekend of 27th to 29th September 2019. In case you win, please ensure that you or someone you trust will be available to submit your winning work on Thursday 26th September 2019, and also to collect your work (if unsold) on Sunday 29th September 2019. Details will be sent in the Winners Pack, should you win.

Acceptable work

ENTRIES - You can submit any 2-dimensional work of art; 3-D objects such as sculpture or pottery will not be accepted. Your work must be an original artwork. It can use any medium including digital. Prints created using woodcuts, linocuts, monoprints, etchings etc are acceptable. However, we will not accept photographs or photographic prints of original artwork. The size of your artwork must not exceed an area of 4000 square cm. The judges reserve the right to refuse any work deemed to be unsuitable for public display.

PRESENTATION - Your artwork can either be framed or unframed; but if the artwork is on paper it must be mounted for its own protection. Your artwork must have a label on the back that gives your name and contact details, the title of the work and the medium.

ART FOR SALE - The winning works of art will be displayed at Royston Arts Society's 2019 Autumn Exhibition. If you wish, you can put your winning artwork up for sale at this event. In case you win you should put the price for your work on the entry form. If the work is sold, Royston Arts Society will charge a commission of 20% so please consider that when pricing. If you do not wish to sell your winning artwork, please leave the price field blank. Other terms & conditions of exhibiting at the RAS Autumn Exhibition can be found at www.roystonarts.org.uk.

General

LIABILITY - Whilst all reasonable care will be taken, Royston Arts Society and their helpers will accept no liability for the loss of, or damage to works submitted. You should make your own arrangements for insurance cover.

The decisions of the judges are final.

Royston Arts Society may photograph artwork submitted for this competition. These photographs will be used by Royston Arts Society for promotional purposes only and where possible, credit will be given to the artist.

The information on the entry forms will be used by Royston Arts Society for the purposes of this exhibition and to send you emails of future events arranged by RAS. If you are one of the winners, the sponsor of the prize you have won will be given your contact details so they can deliver your prize.

Whether you win or not you are welcome to attend the preview of the RAS Autumn Exhibition with your family or friends. This will take place in Royston Town Hall on Friday 27th September 2019 between 8.00 and 10.00 pm.
